

THE TEACHERS' RULES

CHAMPS students and parents acknowledge receipt of, and shall abide by, The Teachers' Rules:

Be seated and prepared to learn before the teacher begins the class.

Bring materials that you need for learning based on teacher supplies lists.

Put away materials that you don't need for learning.

- (a) Leave food and drink untouched in your backpack (including gum).
- (b) Leave CD players, i-pods, and radios turned off in your backpack.
- (c) Leave cell phones turned off in your backpack.
- (d) Leave laptops closed, unless otherwise directed.

Pay attention in class

- (a) To the teacher when the teacher is presenting.
- (b) To classmates and teacher during class discussions.
- (c) To written or verbal directions and instruction.

Avoid distraction

- (a) Suppress impulses to make unnecessary sounds or actions.
- (b) Politely discourage others from distracting you.
- (c) Plan to remain in class for the whole period.
- (d) Raise your hand to ask a question or contribute to a discussion.

Put your books, etc. away only after the teacher ends the class.

Remain in your seat until the teacher dismisses you.

Bring homework and assignments when they are due.
